Sponsored by Equestrians' Institute - OPEN TO ALL

Polestar Farm is a competitive combined training facility operated by International Event rider Meika Decher and her husband, Mark Salser. This Eventing Clinic is an excellent opportunity for riders who are serious about their event training and want to train with three outstanding instructors and have fun as well! Meika and Carrie are active competitors as well as instructors through advanced level. Jen is a dressage instructor and former event rider who is also an L judge. She is an excellent clinician who, as a former eventer, understands the importance of dressage in helping our horses to be supple, balanced and obedient for the jumping phases.
